| YWRC is a non-profit organisation that works to provide information and resources to young people and their families about their rights and obligations in the workplace. We aim to increase awareness about what young people can do to prevent or deal with problems at work. We also offer workshops on a range of different employment issues such as minimum rights, employment agreements, health and safety at work, unlawful discrimination and sexual harassment. We are more than happy to tailor our workshops to suit the needs of participants. We also offer pamphlets, booklet, and drop-in-centre for advice, resources, or referrals. |                           |                      |                 |
