Kia ora [REDACTED]

I refer to your below request, received 6 July 2020, which has come to me for response under the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987. I am now able to provide Hamilton City Council's response.

You requested:

Could you please supply me with the code of conduct breaches by elected members this term.

For each code of conduct breach, could you please identify who committed the alleged breach, who laid the complaint, what action the council took (ie. investigations), and the outcome.

Our response:

The Code of Conduct for Elected Members ("Code") provides that Elected Members and the Chief Executive may make formal complaints about alleged breaches of the Code. The process for assessing complaints and establishing breaches under the Code is set out at Schedule 3 of the Code. There have been no established breaches under the Code this term.

Hey, sorry, yes, Becca.

My brain is slowly easing itself into the week.

Hi [REDACTED]

■■■■ left the organisation years ago hence why it would have been blocked!

I will send through to Becca Brooke our Governance Manager and she will be able to liaise with you.

Thanks!
