Vanessa Williams	Hamilton Central Business Association	HCBA are submitting in support of the amendments to the Central City Zone Chapter 7. By altering the existing conditions, it will allow developers to have more flexibility in the style of design and function of developments. HCBA encourage amendments that can help grow inner city residential builds and provide more options to the buildings and landscape of the CBD. HCBA supports alternative to active frontages with the exception of ground floor residential frontage. HCBA supports the Urban Design guidelines to ensure the right visual aesthetics are applied to developments and to ensure the CBD is at the top of the shopping list for businesses starting or relocating to Hamilton.	Not Answered
