

My Safety Around Dogs - English

7

IF YOU FALL OVER BE A STONE

Curl into a ball and stay very still until an adult comes to help you.

6

IF A DOG RUSHES AT YOU, BE A STATUE!

Drop any food or toys you are holding and stand very still.

2

LET THE DOG COME AND MEET YOU

Make your hand into a ball, let the dog sniff the back of your hand. Remember not to stare into a dog's eyes.

3

PAT THE DOG'S CHIN, CHEST OR SIDE OF THE NECK

Dogs don't like to be patted on the top of their heads.

4

DON'T HUG AND KISS DOGS!

Keep your face away from their teeth.

5

NEVER SCREAM AND RUN AWAY FROM A DOG!

If you run away the dog may chase and bite you.

1

ALWAYS ASK THE OWNER BEFORE YOU PAT THEIR DOG

And remember...

- Never tease or annoy dogs and
- Keep away from dogs that are eating.

FIND THE BONES...

See how many bones you can find...and then colour the picture in.

If you find 3 bones → Good work!
If you find 5 bones → Great work!
If you find 7 bones → Excellent!!

Permission is granted to reproduce this work provided it is reproduced without alteration, the source is fully acknowledged and the authors are advised of its use (through David Swain dswain@waikato.ac.nz).

Obtain a copy of this children's leaflet (about 5-6yrs) in English from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/968>

Obtain a copy of this children's leaflet (about 5-6yrs) in Te Reo Maori from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/975>

Obtain a copy of the children's booklet (about 8-9yrs) in English from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/930>

Obtain a copy of the children's booklet (about 8-9yrs) in Te Reo Maori from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/984>

Obtain a copy of the parents'/caregivers' booklet in English from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/931>

Obtain a copy of the parents'/caregivers' booklet in Te Reo Maori from <http://hdl.handle.net/10289/985>

This leaflet was first published by Jennifer Carter and David Swain, Department of Societies and Cultures, University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand.

© 2008 Jennifer Carter and David Swain.